AmeriFlex / Stacey Weaver named NEW REGIONAL SALES MANAGER FOR THE SOUTHWEST

Mount Laurel, New Jersey / June 5, 2009

Stacey Weaver has been named AmeriFlex's Regional Sales Manager for the Southwest United States, a business zone that includes Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arizona.

Prior to joining AmeriFlex, Stacey worked for Colonial Life, one of the nation's leading Voluntary Benefits companies. She spent five years focusing on incentive marketing, broker marketing, and broker development at Colonial Life's corporate office before becoming an Agency Manager for one of Colonial's new offices in Austin, Texas. While in Austin, she developed new broker relationships and recruited and developed new sales agents.

Stacey is a Colonial Life Regional Award Winner, and she qualified for the company's annual Leaders Conference trip in only six months. Stacy is a member of the Women's Chamber of Central Texas.

While working in the voluntary market, Stacey was an early adopter of Consumer-Driven benefits. She utilized these programs to enhance her own product offering to agents and brokers. "We are very pleased to have Stacey joining our national sales leadership team," said Scott Mardis, AmeriFlex National Sales Director. "Stacey's extensive experience makes her well-equipped to manage one of the fastest-growing regions of the country."

Stacey's arrival at AmeriFlex is concurrent with the recent expansion of the AmeriFlex Internal Sales Support Department (ISS). ISS is responsible for providing hands-on assistance to our broker network and new plan administrators. This additional layer of internal support will further enhance the service we are able to deliver to our brokers and the clients that they serve.
